

Breaking the curses over the wounds

Our wounds are like magnets in the spirit world. They attract all kinds of darkness. These wounds in our spirit heart are things like anger, resentment, bitterness, unforgiveness. In order for us to be healed we need to get past all the legality of covenants and agreements in the spirit and remove the curses that sit as seals over our wounds.

Father, I come before Your court, representing myself, my seed- and blood lines as well as my birthright in all time space and dimension. I thank You for the Blood of the Lamb and the privilege to stand in a covenantal relationship with You. Father, it is the desire of my heart to deal with the generational and personal curses that are attached to me in all time space and dimension. I submit to You my spiritual, physical and emotional DNA, all memory banks in my spirit, soul and body in all time, space and dimension including all the curses attached to it. I stand before You as an accursed person and as one who has cursed others. I repent that these curses could attach to me and my seed because of my unbelief, rebellion and unfaithfulness.

I acknowledge that the curses on me, my seed, my blood, my senses, my wounds and memory banks have a lot of attachments, programming, seals, strongholds, powers, principalities and demons and spirits associated with it with the purpose of devouring Your blessings over my life. I choose today to annul all covenants that mark these and to divorce all the dark workers associated. It is the desire of my heart that these will be removed. I am standing before You with a humble and repentant heart – seeking Your justice through the blood of the Lamb. Father, I acknowledge and repent that for generations we have chosen to walk and be content with the paths of iniquity. I choose today to step away from this path and to start walking on Your path of righteousness. I thank You, Yeshua, that You have become a curse for us and that because of Your precious blood on the cross the curses can be removed from me, my wounds and my seed. I thank You for this divine exchange that can take place and that the curse will be transformed into a blessing.

Christ purchased our freedom [redeeming us] from the curse (doom) of the Law [and its condemnation] by [Himself] becoming a curse for us, for it is written [in the Scriptures], Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree (is crucified); [Deut. 21:23.] (Gal 3:13)

I come and ask that You will break the control bonds of Lucifer over my life. I ask in the name of Yeshua that You will break every curse and that You will close the door on the familiar, ancient and ancestral souls accessing me through these curses. I choose today to surrender my weaknesses and wounds to Your Lordship. I repent Father, of the stronghold of lies that these curses have locked into place. I repent Father, for every instance where I have come into agreement with the lies of the enemy and have laid these lies and their curses as foundation stones in my belief system. I ask for Your breaker anointing in the spirit to demolish these strongholds and to replace them with the Truth of Your Word. I repent for the root sins in my generations, the blood sin, sexual sin, as well as the sins of idolatry and theft – every instance where the seeds of iniquity was planted and where these have sprouted, resulting in generational curses. I take full responsibility for every curse attached to me, my wounds and my seed in all time, space and dimension and choose to forgive all family members in my generations for their part and pacts with the enemy resulting in curses.

I repent of the following sin and the resulting curses that have attached to me, or to those that I have cursed. I ask that the blood of the Lamb will blot them out as I bring them in acknowledgement before Your court. I also ask in the Name of Yeshua that the dark kingdom workers, spiritual structures and seals around these curses will be demolished and broken as I repent. I ask that by the blood of the Lamb these curses will be removed from me, my wounds and my seed in all time, space and dimension. I repent of murder and for shedding innocent blood. I repent of my anger. I repent for not turning the other cheek. I repent for lashing out at others cursing them also because I could not contain my anger and hand it over to You. I choose today to surrender all the anger in my wounds. (Gen 49:7)

I repent of not honoring my father and mother. I repent that I have cursed them with my thoughts, actions and deeds. I know that the resulting curse is death, but I ask that this curse as well as the curse of blood guilt will be removed from my seed in all time, space and dimension. (Lev 20:9)

- My going in and coming out (Deut 28:16)
- My basket and kneading trough (Deut 28:17)
- The fruit of my body, my land and the increase of my possessions. (Deut 28:18).

I also bring the following curses before You and ask that the blood of the Lamb will also blot these out from my seed- and blood line and that You would break their seals over my wounds. In the name of Yeshua I curse these curses to their very roots and declare that me and my mother's house as well as my father's house will never eat of their fruits again. I bring these curses before You as they are mentioned above and ask that You will completely remove their effects from my seed- and bloodline, my spirit, soul, body, and from my wounds in all time space and dimension. I willingly annul the covenants associated with these curses and choose to divorce all the associated dark workers. In the name of Yeshua, I take authority over these curses and any other applicable but not specifically mentioned over my seed- and blood line as well as my wounds in all time, space and dimension and command them to be obliterated, erased, eradicated and reversed never to return to me again. I command that my mind, will and emotions affected by these curses will go back into perfect order, according to the order of Malchizedek. In the Name of Yeshua I ask that the network of witches, governors, princes, deputies, kings, evil counselors, strongmen of witchcraft, familiar spirits, dead human spirits, all soul copies and tongues will be gathered and placed in the blood judgment of YHVH. I ask that Your warring angels will go and break up their circles. I come in the name of Yeshua and silence and cancel every word, thought and deed that was done against me, my seed- and bloodline as well as those uttered by me, in all time, space and dimension. By the blood of the Lamb I cancel these fiery darts and ask for Your ministering angels to pour out Your oil of healing over my wounds and those I have caused in others. I choose to forgive those who have hurt me in such a way and send Your blessings of love and restoration into every area of their lives. I claim their lives for Your Kingdom. In the name of Yeshua I ask that Your angels will start to tear down the fiery furnace that their thoughts, deeds and actions have placed me in. I cancel every ritual that is done against me, I remove all of mine on all altars in all time, space and dimension.
